Information Sheet

Depredation 50 CFR 21.41

In order to expedite the processing of your application for a Depredation Permit, make sure you include the following information with your completed Fish and Wildlife License/Permit Application, Form 3-200-13.

1. List the species of migratory birds involved. Indicate the estimated number involved.
2. Describe the specific damage being caused and how long has the problem occurred. Explain any health hazards that are involved.
3. Give an estimate of the economic cost suffered as a result of the migratory bird depredation.
4. Outline the nonlethal control techniques or actions that have been utilized to control or eliminate the problem. How long and how often have you used these particular methods?
5. Supply the names of all parties that would be actively involved in this depredation control activity. Include any commercial companies you may have contacted if they will be conducting the actual depredation control activities. Include information on the type, registration number, and brief description of any aircraft used for depredation activities, if applicable.
6. List the exact location where the depredation control activity will be conducted.
7. Identify the location where records will be kept.
8. Indicate if you have contacted the Animal Damage Control office within the Department of Agriculture. Give the date contacted, name and title of person, and their recommended action or provide a copy of the Migratory Bird Damage Project Report (ADC Form 37).
9. Supply a copy of your State license authorizing requested authority, if applicable.
10. List telephone number, including area code, where you can be reached between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.

There is a $25 processing fee payable to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service in check or money order for this permit. Institutions which qualify under 50 CFR 13.11(d)(3) may be exempt from fees.

The public reporting burden for these reporting requirements is estimated to be 1 hour, including time for reviewing instructions, gathering and maintaining data, and completing and reviewing the forms. Comments regarding the burden estimate or any other aspect of the reporting requirement(s) should be directed to the Service Information Collection Clearance Officer, MS 224 ARLSQ, Fish and Wildlife Service, Washington, D.C. 20240, or the Office of Management and Budget, Attention: Desk Officer for the Department of the Interior; Washington, D.C. 20503.

An agency may not conduct and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless a currently valid OMB control number is displayed.
